

Jojo Struys

Director of Kyanite TV

JOJO STRUYS BIO (SUMMARY)

Jojo Struys is a celebrity TV host, wellness speaker and co-founder of production house Kyanite TV which has shot programs like 'Yuna Inspired', 'Miss Universe Malaysia', the reality series, 'Chalk and Cheese' for the Asian Food Channel and 'Letting Go' for Mediacorp, TVB Asia and Go Asean.

Kyanite TV also produced 'Jojo's Diary of Asia', a primetime series on TLC, Discovery Channel Asia where Jojo was the host and lead scriptwriter on the project. Apart from being a TV Presenter on screen, Jojo was also the producer and director of "Jejak Jepun Bersama Zizan, Season 1" with Malaysia's acclaimed actor/comedian Zizan Raja Lawak for Air Asia X and Japan Tourism including being the director of singing sensation Yuna, for 'Yuna Inspired', shot on location in London and New York.

Jojo is a HRDF accredited corporate trainer and passionate wellness personality who has been coaching multiple MNC companies on topics like stress management and the power of positivity. She's a resident columnist at The Star newspaper, globally accredited in yoga and author of the book "Jojo Struys's Guide to Wellness".